PLAN OF ORGANIZATION OF THE CONSERVATIVE PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

STATE ORGANIZATION.

A State Committee, to consist of a chairman and thirty members—six of whom shall reside in Raleigh and three in each judicial district—to be appointed by the State Convention.

The committee shall have power to maintain its organization by filling vacancies, &c., and shall take charge of all matters relating to organization, registrations, &c., and a proper canvass of the State.

DISTRICT ORGANIZATION.

The members of the State Committee in each judicial district shall constitute a district Committee for their respective districts and shall appoint a Chairman, and shall take charge of all matters relating to county organization, &c., in their respective districts; and shall report all matters relating thereto, to the Chairman of the State Committee.

COUNTY ORGANIZATION.

It is recommended that each County, by popular meetings or through the medium of existing organization, appoint a County Committee, to consist of at least two persons from each Captain's District within its limits.

The County Committee shall take charge of all matters of registration, local organization, &c., within the County, and is requested to make monthly reports to the Chairman of the District Committee, and when necessary, to inform him of such local matters as may require the attention of the District Committee.

It is further recommended that each County Committee cause to be enrolled the names of all the registered voters of their county, who are willing to act and vote with this organization—no man to be thus enrolled without his express consent; and, also, that they cause to be enrolled on a separate list the names of all those who are entitled to register, but who have not done so, and that they use every exertion to secure their registration and active co-operation.

PLATFORM.

The Conservative people of North Carolina, having by their delegates assembled in Convention at Raleigh, on the 5th of February, 1868, to consider the present anomalous condition of the State, and of the country, and to consult together upon the grievances which now afflict and threaten them, and the course of action proper to be adopted in the trying circumstances which surround them, do resolve and declare

1. Our unalterable devotion to the principles of Constitutional liberty, and our fealty to the government of the United States, as set forth in the Federal Constitution. That we sincerely and in good faith accept the legitimate and legal results of the late war, and do hereby reiterate our oft repeated declaration, that we most heartily desire peace and concord with our sister States, and with the entire people of the United States.

2. Resolved, That regarding the Constitution of the United States as the source of all power in the administration of the government, and that the powers of the Executive, Legislative and Judicial department are equal and co-ordinate, as defined by that instrument, we do respectfully and solemnly protest against the enforcement upon our people, of the Reconstruction Acts, and policy of Congress, as unconstitutional, unwise and destructive to society, and violative of that great principle of American politics, that each State shall have the exclusive control of its own internal offices.

3. Resolved, That it is the opinion of this Convention that the great and all absorbing issue, now soon to be presented to the people of the State, is negro suffrage and negro equality, if not supremacy, and whether hereafter in North Carolina and the South, the white man is to be placed politically and, as a consequence, socially, upon a footing of equality with the negro, and, in many localities, subject to his government as a superior. That we are utterly opposed to such change in our government and in our social relations, and that we do hereby earnestly recommend to the people of the State to manfully meet the issue now attempted to be forced upon them, and to use every proper measure within their power to avert the impending mischief.

4. Resolved, That while we are unalterably opposed to political and social equality with the black race, we yet have no unjust prejudicies against that race, that we are determined, by just laws, to protect them fully in all their civil rights, and to confer upon them all privileges which can be done consistently with the safety and welfare of both races.

5. Resolved, That the distressed and impoverished condition of our people earnestly demands the speediest and wisest measures of relief that the Legislature can devise.

6. Resolved, That this Convention recognizes, with feelings of gratitude, the heroic and patriotic efforts of the President of the United States, to restore the Union and harmony and good will among the American people.

7. Resolved, That this Convention regards the Supreme Court of the United States as the legitimate expounder in the last resort of the Constitution—and believe that its rights and powers, in that respect, should be preserved intact as established by law in the earlier and better days of the republic, and that any serious impairment thereof, by legislation or otherwise, will be destructive to the best interests of the country, and dangerous to the liberties of the people.

8. Resolved, That despairing of any restoration of the Southern States under the conduct of that organization which now controls the proceedings of Congress, waiving all former party feeling and prejudice, this Convention does most unhesitatingly recommend and invite the hearty co-operation of all the good people of North Carolina with the Democrats, and Conservative men of the North and West, who are now nobly struggling for the maintenance of the Constitution of the United States, and the restoration of the Southern States to their rights in the Union, on the solid foundation of harmony and peace.

9. Resolved, That this Convention elect four delegates and four alternates for the State at large, to represent the conservative people of North Carolina in the next Democratic National Convention, and that it recommend to the conservative people of the several Congressional Districts, to appoint delegates at an early day to represent them in said Convention.

10. Resolved, That when an election shall be ordered for the ratification of a new State Constitution, the Executive Committee for the State, hereafter to be appointed by this Convention, be instructed, if the time shall be sufficient to call a Convention of the Conservative people of the State, to put in nomination candidates for the various State offices whose election shall then be ordered, and if there shall not be sufficient time to call said Convention, to put in nomination sound Conservative men for said office.

The North Carolinian.

"Breathes there a man with soul so dead,
Who never to himself hath said,
This is my own, my native land."

WM. A. HEARNE, JNO. W. DUNHAM,
EDITORS.

Raleigh, Saturday, February 22, 1868.

THE ponderous delegate from Lenoir took occasion during the delivery of his speech upon the report of the committee on suffrage to ridicule the idea of negro supremacy and to denounce the charge that the Radical party favored the social equality of the negro as hypocritical, and intended only for party ends.

We propose to prove by facts that some of the members of the party, and among them are its leaders, not only favor such social equality, but have actually put their theory into practice.

On Wednesday night last, Calvin J. Cowles, President of the so-called constitutional convention of North Carolina, entered the restaurant kept by Mr. Josephs, in this city, in company with A. H. Galloway, a negro delegate to the body over which he presides, from the county of New Hanover, ordered oysters, sat at the same table with Galloway and ate them. If this be not social equality, what is it?

On Thursday night, Samuel W. Watts, white man in color, and a delegate to the same convention, was seen by a gentleman of this city, standing at the bar of Lewis' saloon, drinking with Alfred Mitchell, negro, familiarly known as "Boots the barber," one of the meanest and most degraded specimens of his race in this country.

If this be not social equality, what can it be called?

We present these facts for the consideration of the white men of the State, and ask them which they will believe, radical professions, made to deceive them, or radical acts, that can not be misinterpreted?

It is, of course, a question of taste with Cowles and Watts, as to whom they shall select as associates. The degradation incident to the associations attaches to Galloway and Mitchell. They should have been ashamed of any evidence of such intimacy.

What we desire to impress, are the legitimate deductions from the facts we have given. If Cowles and Watts can now associate, on terms of equality, with negroes, how long will it be, should negroes become voters, before they would admit them to their firesides, on terms of intimacy with their families? And if they grant the latter, how can they do otherwise than endeavor to obtain a similar recognition of the negro's equality from the communities in which they dwell?

We warn the white men of the State against these human vipers. They are seeking to degrade you, by compelling you to acknowledge the equality of brutal and ignorant inferiors. Be watchful, active and earnest, and we shall yet send these creeping, crawling things that wear the form of man, to its ineffable disgrace, back to their dark haunts forever.

MR. Samuel Forkner, who feebly assists in the representation of the counties of Alleghany, Ashe, Surry, Watauga and Yadkin in the Convention, gave utterance, by mistake, to some truths in the speech he made on the suffrage question Thursday night. After announcing his opposition to harsh and vindictive laws, and his conviction that their adoption would act in detriment to the success of the Radical party, Mr. Forkner stated "that the people of the West are, for the most part, Union men, but that they were not yet satisfied about this thing you call negro equality. Though we (alluding to Radical delegates from the West) were elected by large majorities, yet, if you will examine the statistics, you will find that not a half vote was cast."

There is in Mr. Forkner's remarks an admission that no other member of his party has had the manliness or candor to make; its intention to enforce the civil, political and social equality of the negro, in case of success in the campaign on the constitution. That is the issue, however much and loudly those more prudent or less honest than Mr. Forkner may deny it, and he uttered the truth when he stated that the people of the West were not yet satisfied about the matter. In the sense in which Mr. Forkner uses the terms, the white men of the West—the friends and lovers of a genuine Union, are not satisfied, and they will express their dissatisfaction on the day of the election in a manner that will astonish Mr. Forkner and his scalawag associates. The majorities of which he boasts, will disappear like mist, when the men of the mountain country shall know that the party of Mr. Forkner is seeking to degrade the noble, true-hearted women of the State, by asserting the absolute equality with them of vicious and abandoned negroes.

The time has come when the people of the West perceive the designs of those who have deceived them by specious promises of restoration and peace; and seeing, they are already preparing to repudiate its authors by polling against the instrument they shall frame such majorities as have never been given in an election in our borders.

THE Rev. A. J. Ryan, the poet-priest of the South, will commence the publication of a weekly paper to be styled The Banner of the South, in the city of Augusta Ga., on the 1st proximo. The Banner of the South will be devoted to Religion, Literature and Art, and will be furnished to subscribers at three dollars a year.

Under such management, it would seem impossible for the interprise to be other than the most brilliant success.

The editor of the Banner of the South is the author of the celebrated ballad, "The Conquered Banner," and of numerous other poems as familiar in Southern homes as fireside words. Such an acquisition to the editorial corps in the Southern States is indeed most valuable.

THE NEW SPECTACULAR DRAMA OF THE PURITAN AND THE BLACK-LEG!

(BY OUR SPECIAL REPORTER UNDER THE TABLE.)

[The reader is particularly requested to remember the fact that no Reporter for this paper is allowed on the floor, in the halls or in the galleries of the Convention, and consequently our reports are made from under the table, behind the scenes, or as may be otherwise ordered and convenient.]

EVENING PERFORMANCE.

THURSDAY, Feb. 25.

The performance commenced at 7½ o'clock as advertised in the North Carolinian.

The Reverend (?) Welker, of Guilford, arose to address the congregation. He took a text from the Suffrage question and wailed thusly: A great deal had been said in this body about the ignorance of the colored man. He didn't know much about the intelligence or character of the black man in Africa and some other parts of the world, but so far as Guilford county was concerned, the colored people there were generally superior to the whites in every essential particular, and, in proof thereof, he cited the fact of their having voted unanimously for him and another equally respectable nigger-loving, Ohio scalawag, i. e. the scalawag Tourgee, whose counterpart, we venture to say, cannot be found in "classic Hell's-Half-Acre." [We protest that this saintly soul has no right to speak of the intelligence and respectability of his county, as to our certain knowledge, he is not permitted to associate with the gentleman of Guilford.]

Mr. Holt, interrupting, asked the Reverend hypocrate if he preached such sentiments in his county 10 years ago.

Welker said he was not a politician 10 years ago, still he had always believed that the nigger was the equal of the white man.

[Oh, what a Reverend liar! Ten years ago this self-same Welker not only preached to the colored churches under his charge that slavery was clearly sanctioned by Holy Writ, but he declared to white people that he was not only in favor of maintaining, at any sacrifice, the institution (of slavery) wherever it then existed, but of extending it also to wherever there was a nigger.]

He did not think that certain "rebels" in the State should be allowed to vote, inasmuch as they were still bold and defiant. Some of them even threatened war.

He would tell such traitors that if they ever dared to buckle on their armor again, the colored people, thick as locusts, would sweep down from the mountains like an ambulance, [we suppose he meant an avalanche,] and smash 'em up so clean that you would hardly be able to find a spot of grease to tell where the "devils" had been.

Mr. Forkner obtained the floor and begun his speech by abusing Andrew Johnson, and affirming that Congress alone had the power of governing the Southern States. He deprecated the differences existing among Western Republicans on the suffrage question. It was wrong to legislate in a vindictive manner; reason and not passion should govern them. He could not be thrown off his guard by the threats that had been made on the floor. He was opposed to so much legislation for party purposes, and conjured the Convention to legislate so that it would redound to the welfare of the State. He affirmed that this Convention had no power to disfranchise any person. He denied that there were white men enough in the State, hostile to the government, to control it if allowed to vote. The people of the West are for the most part Union men, but they are not yet satisfied about this thing you call negro equality. Though we were elected by large majorities, yet, if you examine the statistics, you will find that not half a vote was cast. [This speech did not set well on the Radical stomach.]

Mr. Ray, the black-hearted but pale-faced delegate from Alamance, said the safety of the gorillas would be endangered by giving the intelligent whites of the country the ballot. They had given no signs of becoming such sycophants and puling reptiles as he was, and therefore he wished them kept down. [Poor fool! he need have no fears of his safety, for the safety of cowardly miscreants of his ilk is never endangered when a crisis comes, as long as there are woods to skulk in, and farmers' sheep and hogs to feed on.] He (Ray) was for universal negro suffrage, and he was sorry to see that there were Republican delegates, who had not yet sunk so low in human depravity as himself, who favored universal white suffrage.

Mr. Holt then obtained the floor, and said that while the Convention was on this question of disfranchisement, he hoped the cases of the deserters from the Confederate army, not only in the State—not only in the city of Raleigh—but sitting in the former seats of gentlemen on that floor, might be investigated. [There was a squirming among certain hybrids at this allusion, and notwithstanding their brazen attempts to look honest, their hang-dog countenances gave evidence that this capital shot took effect.] Mr. Holt said he alluded to men who volunteered for the war, but who, when called upon to expose their vile and cowardly carcasses, deserted, not on account of their love for the Union, but because, overladen in vice and crime, they were basely afraid to face the fire;—men who in 1861 threw up their hats and vociferously cheered the Confederate flag; who taught the people secession, but who now came crawling on their knees, kissing the feet of their masters, and to prove their loyalty, denounce and proscribe men of honor and true worth.

Hood, Egyptian gorilla, from Cumberland, by the consent of the African gorillas, was then allowed to attempt a reply to Mr. Ellis' speech, and occupied the floor for some time in a vain and futile effort.

On motion of Shaker Abbott, the King of the kangaroos, the performances closed for the evening, and the varmints retired to their dens.

THE KOWLES FAMILY, —OR—
THE CAPITOL MENAGERIE!

MORNING EXHIBITION.

THIRTY-THIRD DAY.

FRIDAY, Feb. 21.

The cages were unbarred and the varmints led out in the order of their color, the darker shades in the highest odor ev-er-y time.

Hood, Egyptian gorilla, was the first performer in the ring. He desired to show the error in the Sentinel's report of yesterday, concerning a resolution he had offered the previous day, removing penalties from ministers of the Gospel and Justices of the Peace officiating in marriage ceremonies.

Manager Kowles said that the Sentinel had purposely misrepresented the delegate from Cumberland, in order that it might have the grim satisfaction of hearing its report read for once, before the august Konvenshun.

[He added, sotto voce,

"I'd see Pell
And the Sentinel
In h—alifax,

before I'd gratify 'em that way."]

Hood said that the Sentinel reporter might have been honestly mistaken, he therefore wished the resolution read in order to explain it.

[We will do Hood the justice to say, that he is more conversant with parliamentary usages, is more courteous in debate, and evinces infinitely more intelligence than nine-tenths of his white Radical confreres.]

RESOLUTIONS, ORDINANCES, &C.

Mr. Jones, of Washington, presented a resolution requiring the Secretary of State to provide the convention with stationery.

On motion, the rules were suspended, and the resolution adopted.

[The effect of this resolution will be to supply the illiterate delegates with copy books for the next two years, besides furnishing numerous country stores in many counties with stationery, at the expense of the State.]

The ordinance of Hood, the Egyptian Gorilla, (of which he gave notice on yesterday) was then taken up and read. The ordinance exempts from fine magistrates and ministers of Cumberland county, who, owing to the death of the clerk of the County Court of Cumberland, solemnized certain marriages without obtaining license, in violation of an act of the last Legislature. The rules were suspended, and the ordinance adopted.

SPECIAL ORDER—THE SUFFRAGE QUESTION.

The Tourgee brayed. The carpet-bag delegate regarded universal nigger suffrage as a fixed fact. The niggers, he said, had settled that question themselves beyond peradventure, by absconding from their masters, volunteering in the Union army to keep from starving—standing guard over rebel prisoners at Point Lookout, fleeing from Olustee, filling the crater at the mines, and being massacred at Fort Pillow. In listening to his tribute to their valor and patriotism during the war, the uninformed hearer would have thought the nigger alone "crushed the rebellion." He grew pathetic, in their defence, and with the awkward contortions of a trick monkey, related an individual instance of the death of one of his black brethren, who fell at Fort Pillow, that drew crocodile tears from his sympathetic listeners, and even operated so sensibly on his own affected nerves as to cause his sonorous bray to lower its tone into the whine of the whang-doodle when wailing for its first-born. Gen. Forest, as usual, was abused roundly, as an "unhanged, blood-stained traitor, now howling for a white man's government." He was unwilling to forgive the white men of the South for the "sin of rebellion," and extend to them the privileges of citizens, unless they would really and sincerely repent, and consent to give the nigger, just emerged from bondage, the same rights and privileges they demanded for themselves. He gave an imaginary description of the Southern white man's oppression of the negroes since they had been freed, libelled our courts of justice, and having expended his stock of abuse and wholesale lying, finally concluded by hoping that the minority report of his brother reprobates, Candler and Congleton, in its main features would become the law of the land.

Mr. Jones, of Washington, then took the floor. Of course, he too, favored universal nigger suffrage. He wished, however, on the disfranchisement question, to strike out the 9th section of the majority report, and insert a section, (which, though not so palpable on its face, was as odious and as objectionable in its character as the minority report,) requiring registration, and the majority oath amended so that every registered voted shall swear never to aid secession of the State and to accept the political and civil equality of all men; so that no man who had voted against this Constitution could register, for this Constitution provides for civil and political equality, and a man, voting against it, denies that equality, and, therefore, he could not take the required oath.

Mr. Pool (spell him with an F.) said that since this was the most momentous question that had ever engaged the attention of statesmen "since the morning stars sang together," he would defer his proposition for the antecedent question until to-morrow.

Then arose Kinney, the aged Isaac K., from Davidson. He said that he was a venerable individual, and had cum down to the Konvensun from a forma generashun. The Lord had been pleased to protract his habit of existence that his eyes might behold the period of this joyous occashun. Fifty years ago—more or less—about the same time o' day, he deposited his first ballot. [Don't remember who he voted for, but thought how it mout a' been Ginral Jackson.]

He was an "unlarnt man," and consequently didn't know much, but still the rebel soldiers couldn't fool him. One of 'em did try to throw dust in his eyes, but the young 'un caught a Tartar that time. He (Kinney) was a register in Davidson county, and a young rebel who had fout the ole flag cum to him and wanted to register. He axed reb if he had had enough of war; reb said no, he'd fite the Yanks like he—l agin if he had a half chance; whereupon he (Kinney) tole him he couldn't register.

He proceeded in this "unlarnt" style for some time, but it would exhaust the patience of the "devil" himself to print his remarks. He wound up by saying that he was in favor of disfranchising for life, and taxing for life, every body deprived of the elective franchise by Congress.

Mr. Parker, of Northampton, then took the floor, and hoped that neither the one party nor the other would go to extremes. He thought there was a happy medium, and he scouted the idea that the enfranchisement of the disfranchised would endanger the Republic. Disfranchisement, he said, was not in keeping with the doctrine of republicanism, and he did not think Congress required it—that it was bad policy, dangerous, and subversive of the best interests of the State.—He would not, therefore, advocate a constitution that contained a disfranchising clause.

Mr. Graham, of Orange, called attention to the fact that Mr. Pool, the Chairman of the Committee on Suffrage, had given notice of his intention to call the previous question. He trusted that courtesy among the Republicans would prevail, and allow Mr. Durham an opportunity to reply to the attacks on the minority report and its signers.

Here the children all sat down, and pater familias woke up, and ordered the clearing of the ring and caging of the varmints, reptiles and wild animals of his wonderful and choice collection until 7½ P. M.

A planter near Savannah consigned his cotton crop to a merchant of that city, who sold the goods, pocketed the money, and then failed, after which he wrote thus to his confiding countryman: "Dear friend, I acknowledge I spent your money. I feel that my God has forgiven me the sin, and I trust that you will, as I've taken the benefit of the bankrupt act. Affectionately, your friend."

Wayne County Conservative Meeting.

The following are the proceedings of a meeting of the Conservatives of Wayne county, held at the Court House in Goldsboro', Tuesday the 18th instant:

On motion, the Hon. W. T. Dortch was called to the Chair, and Wm. Hollowell and Jesse W. Edmundson, requested to act as Secretaries.

The object of the meeting was explained by the chairman, and the situation correctly and fully defined in a short and impressive speech.

On motion of C. S. Wooten, Esq., that a committee of five be appointed to prepare resolutions, expressing the sense of the meeting, the chair named the following gentlemen for the purpose, viz.: Messrs. C. S. Wooten, Geo. V. Strong, Jno. C. Slocumb, Geo. C. Moses and E. A. Wright.

In the absence of the committee, the Hon. S. J. Person was called on to address the meeting. Judge Person spoke of the dangers of negro supremacy and radical rule, alluded to that mongrel body now at Raleigh, and dwelt upon the evils that may be expected from their monstrous doings, if the true patriots of North Carolina—the men of intelligence and of the proper spirit—remain passive and indifferent.

After Mr. Person's speech, the Committee on Resolutions reported through their chairman, C. S. Wooten, Esq., the following, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we most heartily endorse the declaration of principles set forth by the convention of the conservative people of North Carolina, assembled in Raleigh, on the 5th and 6th of this month, and that we pledge our best efforts to ensure their triumphant success.

Resolved, 2nd, That we approve of the plan of organization adopted by said Convention, and that in pursuance thereof, the chairman of this meeting be requested to appoint a committee for this county consisting of three or more for each Captain's district, in his discretion.

Resolved, 3rd, That the chairman of this meeting appoint twenty-five delegates to a district convention, to be held at a time and place hereafter to be designated, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Congress, and delegates to the Democratic National Convention.

Mr. Geo. V. Strong was then called on, and he, too, advised the assembly of the duties of the hour. There were dangers now threatening our country—danger of the subjection of the white race for a short season—which can easily be averted, if action and argument are used to arouse the people from the feelings of apathy into which they have fallen.

Mr. Strong and Mr. Person both spoke at length and ably, and were greeted with long and continued applause throughout their speeches.

NEWS AND MISCELLANY.

There are still further arrivals to-night of prominent democrats, who come here to take part in the selection of a place for holding the National Democratic Nominating Convention. The West is very numerously represented, and it is probable that region will be as strong as the North and East combined. The outside pressure upon the members of the national committee, which meets here next Saturday, to secure their votes for the meeting of the convention in one or other of the favorite cities, is overwhelming. All the members of the committee have not arrived, nor is it certain they will all be here by Saturday, as some of them have not been heard from.

The committee, as furnished by the Secretary, are: New York, August Belmont, New York city; Massachusetts, F. O. Prince, Boston, secretary; Maine, C. R. Lynn, Portland; New Hampshire, Josiah Minot, Concord; Vermont, H. H. Smith, Milton; Connecticut, William M. Converse, Norwich; Rhode Island, Gideon Bradford, Providence; New Jersey, W. G. Steele, Trenton; Pennsylvania, W. A. Galbraith, Erie; Delaware, Jno. A. Nicholson, Dover; Maryland, Oden Bowie, Collington; Kentucky, James Guthrie, Louisville, L. S. Trimble; Paducah; Ohio, Rufus P. Ranney, Cleveland; Indiana, W. E. Niblack, Vincennes; Illinois, Wilbur, F. Story, Chicago; Michigan, W. L. Bancroft, Port Huron; Missouri, Lewis W. Bogg, St. Louis; Minnesota, John H. M. Kenney, Chatfield; Wisconsin, Geo. H. Paul, Milwaukie; Iowa, D. G. Finch, Des Moines; Kansas, Isaac E. Eaton, Leavenworth; California, Thos. Haynes, San Francisco; Oregon, Wm. McMillan; Virginia, John S. Millson, Norfolk; South Carolina, Wm. L. Sharkey; Alabama, George S. Houston; Texas, John Hancock; Georgia, A. H. Chappell; West Virginia, Thomas Sweeny; Florida, H. Marvin; Arkansas, A. B. Greenwood, Bentonville; Nevada, Joseph G. McCorkle, Virginia City; Nebraska, John Patrick, Omaha.

The President to-day received a letter from Gen. Sherman on the subject of his assignment to the new command of the Department of the Atlantic and his nomination to be brevet general. The letter is dated the 14th instant, and came through the headquarters of Gen. Grant. Although your correspondent is not enabled to give a copy of the letter, or its substance, yet he can state that the tone, temper and phraseology is about what was predicted in these dispatches, respectful and courteous.—Washington Correspondence of the Baltimore Sun, Feb. 19th.

The House Judiciary Committee has authorized Mr. Lawrence to report a bill organizing a law department of the Government. It provides that law officers attached to each bureau of the Government shall be directly under the control of the Attorney-General, and not work independent of that officer, as at present, without being responsible to any person. The bill also forbids the employment of additional counsel by law officers of various bureaus to assist in cases before the Supreme Court of the United States, unless employed directly by orders of the Attorney General.

An English paper says that there is a story current in society to the effect that just before Mr. Dickens started last November for the United States, an American friend advised him to purchase, and always to wear at his readings, some very startling piece of jewelry, say a gold cable for a watchguard, or some enormous diamond studs, "for," said he, "the New York reporters are sure to describe your personal appearance, and it's as well to give them something to lay hold of."

The co-operative movement in New York is proving a success. Within the last twelve months the principle of co-operation, as applied to building among workingmen, has resulted in the formation of two societies, with a membership of five hundred each, and shares covering nearly three millions dollars have been disposed of.

The Baltimore Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, will commence its sessions in the city of Baltimore on Wednesday the 4th day of March.

OUR NOON DISPATCHES.

The New Jersey Legislature.

TRENTON, Feb. 21.

The House concurred in the Senate resolution withdrawing New Jersey's assent to the 14th article.

True Grit.

MERIDIAN, Conn., Feb. 21.

Steven Ives, proprietor of the Meriden House, expelled Fred. Douglas from the public table and whipped the editor of the Meriden Recorder for comment.

Ives has been held to answer on the civil and the criminal charge.

OUR MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

Removal of Stanton.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.

The following letter was delivered to Mr. Stanton to-day:

EXECUTIVE MANSION,
Washington, Feb. 21, 1868.

Sir:—By virtue of the power and authority vested in me as President by the constitution and laws of the United States, you are hereby removed from office as Secretary of the Department of War, and your functions as such will terminate upon the receipt of this communication. You will transfer to Brevet Maj. Gen. Lorenzo Thomas, Adjt. General of the army, who has this day been authorized and empowered to act as Secretary of War ad interim, all records, books, papers and other public property now in your custody and charge.

Respectfully yours,
ANDREW JOHNSON, President.

To Hon. Edwin M. Stanton.

Washington Items.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.

Mayor Donelson and Minor Merriweather, agent of the Mississippi Levee Board, are here. They urge Congressional appropriotion for levees of the Yozoo basin, extending from Memphis to Vicksburg on the East bank. An ordinary meeting was held last night at Senator Fowler's rooms, attended by the Tennessee delegation and many members from sections not immediately interested. The necesity of Congressional aid is conceded, otherwise vast productive tracts will be flooded. Major Donelson and Mr. Merriweather are hopeful of securing the appropriation asked by the board.

The members of the National Democratic Committee appointed at Chicago will meet to-morrow at 12, with closed doors. Among the matters to be considered are the powers of committee-men from the Southern States.

The Supreme Court has postponed all cases involving the constitutionality of the legal tender act until next term.

The Republican Senators held a caucus this morning on the Alabama dilemma. Adjourned without action.

Immediately after reading Stanton's communication to-day, Mr. Covode moved the impeachment of the President. Mr. Brooks objected. The speaker decided that it was a privileged question, but the matter was finally referred to the Reconstruction Committee.

Mr. Stanton has not yet vacated the war office.

The Senate still in Executive session at 8 P. M.

Gen. Thomas has officially accepted the war office ad interim, and will apply to the courts to expel Stanton.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.

Prolonged personal explanations occurred, involving Harvey's dispatch advising South Carolina of the intention to reinforce Fort Sumpter. It was asserted that no such dispatch was ever sent—that the dispatch was inspired by Seward and opposed by the Cabinet. Senator Cameron became warm, saying that if Mr. Seward intimated that Harvey's dispatches had the approval of Cameron or the Cabinet, Seward said what was not true.

A memorial was presented from Kentucky negroes, stating that they had no rights and asking relief.

Reconstruction was resumed, and after executive session the Senate adjourned.

House—Mr. Wood moved to adjourn to Monday, in honor of the birth-day of Washington, but Mr. Washburne, of Illinois, desired a session to debate the bill extending Smith & Wesson's fire arms patent. The bill passed.

A communication was presented from Post Master General Randall, demanding a public investigation of the charges made by Mr. McClung of fraud in awarding Southern mail contracts. The House went into Committee on Naval Appropriations, involving eighteen millions.

Speaker Colfax presented the following:

WAR DEPARTMENT,
Washington City, Feb. 21. 1868.

Sir: Gen. Thomas has delivered to me a copy of the enclosed order, which you will please communicate to the House of Representatives.

Your obedient servant,
EDWIN M. STANTON,
Secretary of War.

The communication was referred to the Reconstruction Committee. Adjourned.

Virginia Convention.

RICHMOND, Feb. 21.

The day was spent in discussion on suffrage. On the conservative side it was asserted that the white men of the State would never submit to negro rule—that the men who fought under Lee would sooner lie in the grave with those who had gone before them. The name of Lee elicited applause from spectators, which the chair checked. The speaker said that the whites wished the blacks well, and would be willing to be heavily taxed to colonize them on the best lands the government had. Two black delegates replied, urging the rights of the negro to suffrage, and his capacity to use it for good. The Convention adjourned until Monday to observe the 22nd.

Cable Dispatches.

DUBLIN, Feb. 21.

Geo. Francis Train's first lecture was a financial failure. There were no signs of rioting, though the authorities took measures to preserve the peace.

David Murphe, recently arrived from the United States, was arrested at Cork, charged with Fenian complicity.

Destructive Fire in Tallahassee.

TALLAHASSEE, Feb. 21

The store of Kirksey & Johnson was burned this morning. The fire broke out in an adjoining building and was doubtless the work of an incendiary. A soldier named Piatt was killed by falling walls. Several others injured.

Florida Convention.

TALLAHASSEE, Feb. 21.

The Convention adopted several articles of the constitution. Will have night sessions hereafter.

Nominations by the President.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.

The President made the following nominations to-day: Gen. George B. McClellan to be Minister to England, and James R. Hubbard to be Minister to Equador.

Gen. Thomas to be Brevet General.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.

The President has nominated Maj. Gen. Geo. H. Thomas to be Lieut. General by brevet and General by brevet.

Military Mayor of Charleston.

CHARLESTON, Feb. 21.

The new Military Mayor, Gen. Burns, entered on his duties to-day.

South Carolina Convention.

CHARLESTON, Feb. 21.

The Convention consumed the day in debate. Several leading negro delegates have gone to Washington to ascertain the probable reception of negro Congressmen, and the chance of obtaining from Congress land for the landless.

Wholesale Removals.

RICHMOND, Feb. 21.

Gen. Schofield to-day removed the City Recorder and eleven Magistrates of the Hustings Court, for permitting tobacco inspectors to qualify without taking the test oath.

Death of an Old Citizen.

RICHMOND, Feb. 21.

John Dooley, an old merchant, died last night.

The NORTH CAROLINIAN is Democratic in its principles. It is unalterably opposed to Negro Suffrage, Military rule, and Reconstruction upon the basis of Congressional enactment. Its Editors believe and teach that this is a

WHITE MAN'S GOVERNMENT,

FRAMED BY THE BRAINS, AND

WON BY THE BLOOD OF WHITE MEN,

FOR THE BENEFIT OF WHITE MEN,

AND THAT IT SHOULD BE

CONTROLLED BY WHITE MEN ONLY.

As there is but ONE NATIONAL ORGANIZATION professing these sentiments and committed to their maintenance, the NORTH CAROLINIAN will steadily advocate the abandonment of all other party names and organizations, and yield a hearty co-operation with that organization—the NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC PARTY.

THE NORTH CAROLINIAN,

Will contain the freshest News, by telegraph and otherwise. Full reports of all Legislative Assemblies will be furnished its readers.

Particular attention will be paid to State news, and each number will contain a complete epitome of every incident reported in the State press.

STATE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

The gentlemen composing the State Executive Committee, are respectfully requested to meet in this city on Friday, the 28th inst., at 11 o'clock. A full attendance is much desired.

By order of the

CHAIRMAN.

FROM FORT MACON.

We met at the depot yesterday, Mr. J. C. Cawdel, of Anson county, on his way home from a four months incarceration in the bastile of the Second Military District.

Mr. Cawdel was sentenced, in October last, to twelve months imprisonment at hard labor, for shooting a negro in the act of stealing corn on his farm in Lenoir county—military conviction of course. Mr. Cawdel is indebted to the intercession of the people in Anson, and of Governor Worth, for his early release and restoration to a suffering and grief-stricken family.

We are pleased to hear through him of the continued good health of Messrs. Tolar, Powers and Watkins, who, our readers all know, are buried in this same bastile for a term of fifteen years, charged with avenging an outrage upon the person of one of the fairest and loveliest daughters of Fayetteville. Allusion to these unfortunate victims of a burlesque trial touches upon a chord in the human heart that must and does awaken the sympathies of every manly nature, throughout the world.

PUBLIC ADDRESSES.

Col. E. D. Hall, of Wilmington, has accepted invitations from the citizens of Onslow county to address them at the following places:

Jacksonville—Tuesday, March 3rd.
Swansboro—Thursday, March 5th.
Richlands—Saturday, March 8th.

Col. Hall is a ready and forcible speaker, and his efforts will do much towards arousing the people to their duty. We agree in the hope expressed by the Journal, that "this example will be followed by other leading men throughont the State."

CITY AND STATE.

Difference of Opinion.

Every day serves to develope the knowledge and talent of the convention. It is one of the ablest, [see Eppes' resolution about "horses, jackasses and other horned cattle,"—search "de archives of gravity" for Carry's speech,] most dignified, [vide motion of the Reverend Hood to adjourn to see Castello's managerie pass the Capitol,] and most patriotic [read speeches of the designing scoundrels from Buzzard's Bay, Mass., New York, Ohio, and elsewhere, urging the disfranchisement of White men, of native North Carolinians, in order that they, the aforesaid thieving interlopers, may fill the offices of the State,] bodies ever assembled in the State.—The Standard's opinion.

Each succeeding day of the Konvenshun, serves to develope more fully the ignorance and gross licentiousness of that depraved assemblage. It is, without question, the most illiterate, brutal, sensual and corrupt body that ever assembled in any age, country, or clime. We believe that three-fourths of its members are capable of any crime known in the calendar of villainy. Verily, we do, selah.

The North Carolinian's opinion.

New Men with (very) New Ideas.

A new class of men with new ideas, and fully up to the progress of the age, and deeply imbued with the great principles of liberty and justice, are henceforth to be the leading spirits in the State of North Carolina.—Mr. C. C. Pool on Suffrage.

"A new class of men," verily, such as Abbott, Ashley, French, Heaton, Mann, Hayes, Laflin, Sweet, and such like; "with new ideas," like Congleton's, that a hog is common property, and therefore the spoil of the captor; "and deeply imbued with the great principles of liberty and justice," as shown in their advocacy of the disfranchisement of the white men of the State; "are henceforth to be the leading spirits in North Carolina," "one of whom I (little Pool—spell it rather with an F) am which."

O tempora, oh Moses!

Scalawag Nomination for Congress.

The Radicals of the counties of Craven, Carterest and Jones have declared for Col. David Heaton, a very mild mannered son of Mr. Kalvin J. Kowles, for Congress from the 2d Congressional District. Col. Heaton, while "seriously distrustful of his abilities, and desiring that some able man should be selected," will very graciously "accept the nomination so generously tendered," we presume. What Radical wouldn't accept a position paying thousands of dollars a year?

Who Struck Kalvin?

We do not pretend to say that Galloway, claybank, and Manager Kowles had a little "scrimmage" over their oysters at Josephs' 'tother night, but we do know that the nasal appendage of the great "rootist" is skinned muchly, and being a "loil" man of the strictest sect, we repeat the question in every body's mouth—Who struck Kalvin?

We pause for a reply.

A Radical Pun-ishment.

Why are Messrs. Rich and Taylor like all the members of the Convention? Because they are afflicted with Cowles (colds).

Washington Hicks, the negro highwayman who was hanged in Newbern on the 14th inst., made a confession of his crimes before his execution. The confession was published in the Newbern Journal of Commerce of Thursday.

Hicks acknowledged that he killed a young man at the Railroad depot in Newbern some time ago, and that he was largely engaged in the highway robberies and other crimes, which have been committed in the city of Newbern and vicinage.

Before his execution he made a profession of religion. The following is his address to his race, as it was taken down by the Rev. A. D. Cohen, who was his spiritual adviser during his term of confinement:

My Dear Fellow-men—I want you all to take warning by my end. I have been led astray by white and black. My crimes have been many, and I deserve my fate. If you would not come to the same end, you must quit all such and try to live an honest life, and serve the Lord, and try to meet me on the great day in peace. We cannot tell when the Son of Man comes, and we ought to try to be always ready. I am going to be hanged upon the gallows for committing crime against my fellow-men and God. If you follow the advice of bad men you will come to the gallows, sooner or later. Quit your idle ways and go to work, and work for an honest living, and then you will not be tempted to steal and rob and plunder and murder, as I have done.—Farewell.

We commend the advice he gives to the serious attention of idle and dissolute negroes.

We learn from the Newbern Journal of Commerce that a party of negroes went to the residence of Mr. Council Hardison, who lives on the plantation of Mr. Henry R. Bryan about four miles from Newbern on Wednesday night, and attempted to obtain entrance by forcing open one of the windows. In order to reach the window, it became necessary for one of the party to get upon the back of another. Mr. Hardison, who had been aroused, shot the scoundrel, fatally, it is thought, from the blood found on the ground the next morning. A party of neighbors coming up dispersed the band. This was the third attempt to rob or murder Mr. Hardison this week.

The Rev. Dr. Deems lectured in Wilmington, Thursday evening, for the benefit of the Seamen's Friend Society. Subject—"The Sea." Our Wilmington exchanges speak in eulogistic terms of the effort.

He lectured last night for the benefit of the Ladies Benevolent Society. Subject—"Husbands and Wives." The latter lecture has been delivered, by the author, in many of the cities of New York and the New England States, and is always well received.

This Local is not the fighting man of the Carolinian. Like General Abbott, we are a quaker, and don't believe in "foolin" with "yer villainous saltpetre."

Gorillas will please nota bene.

REAR ADMIRAL H. H. BELL.—By telegraph the death is announced of Rear Admiral Henry Haywood Bell, commanding the United States Asiatic squadron. He, with a boat's crew of the men of the Flag Ship Hartford, was drowned while crossing the bar at the mouth of the Osaka, Japan, on the 11th of January last. Admiral Bell was born in this State, and was appointed to the navy on the 4th of August, 1823. He was promoted regularly until he reached the high rank which he held at the time of his death. He won his promotion from Fleet Captain to that of Commodore for the conspicuous services he bore during the successful attack upon New Orleans in 1862.

Admiral Bell is nearly related to the Haywood family of this State, and was a cousin of the late Hon. W. S. Ashe, of this city. We believe he was the only North Carolinian remaining in the naval service of the United States. He is spoken of as a fine officer, and an exemplary gentlemen. Several years previous to the war he visited Raleigh to see his numerous relations in that city, but since the struggle he never returned to his native State, from which he was probably alienated in sympathy and feeling by the events of the past few years.—Wilmington Journal.

At the municipal election held in Syracuse, N. Y., on the 19th, the Hon. C. H. Anderson, republican, received 124 majority over John A. Green, Jr., democrat. The republicans also elect five out of eight aldermen, giving them the control of the city government. Gain on the vote of last fall 193, and on that of the spring 364.

"Ariel's" real name is said to be McMahon. His mother, we are told, was a Miss Harris, of Richmond, whose first husband was Dr. Wood or Woods, of Albemarle. She afterwards married a McMahon, and moved to Nashville.—Native Virginian.

The New York Democratic Central Committee have appointed a delegation to visit Washington, and urge upon the National Committee the selection of New York city as the place for holding their next National Convention.

NOTICE TO SHIPPERS OF SPIRITS OF TURPENTINE.

The Seaboard Inland Air Line, Via Portsmouth, Va., is now prepared to ship Spirits Turpentine to Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York, its steamers having bern arranged for that purpose.

This Air Line Route, from the fact of its avoiding transshipment from one Steamer to another, to which other lines are subject, and being the direct line between the Carolinas and the Northern Cities, with daily communication to Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York, and to Boston a Steamer every five days, offers great facilities for shipping, and is in advance of all other routes from three to five days and at as low rates.

In shipping from the Northern Cities, or from Carolina, be careful to ship via Portsmouth, and by the Steamship Lines connecting with and forming part of this Route.

From Boston, Merchants and Miner's Line, E. Sampson, Agent, end Central Wharf.

From New York, Old Dominion Steamship Company, Pier 37, North river, M. L. McCready President, Office 187 Greenwich street.

From Philadelphia, Clyde Steamers, 14 South Delaware Avenue, W. P. Clyde, Agent.

Annamessic Line, Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Depot, J. L. Wilson, Agent.

All claims for loss, damage, or overcharge, promptly settled by applying to

JAS. McCARRICK, Trace Agent,
Seaboard Inland Air Line, Portsmouth, Va.

The Seaboard and Roanoke Railroad and Bay Line, having been consolidated under one Management from Weldon to Baltimore, offer greater facilities to shippers of freight to and from Baltimore than any other line, and guarantees safety of freight and prompt settlement of all claims.

ROSADALIS WILL CURE THE WORST CASES OF SCROFULA. READ THE STATEMENT BELOW, AND DESPAIR NOT.

WILSON COUNTY, Sept. 10, 1867.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE:

Dear Sir—My youngest daughter, aged five years, has been dreadfully afflicted with Scrofula nearly all her life. I tried a great many Physicians, but without relieving her much; in fact, most of them said there was no hope of cure.—During the last Spring she was worse than ever, her body and limbs being covered with sores and blotches—with face and eyes badly ulcerated and swollen. Whilst in this condition, I was advised by Dr. L. A. Stith to try your Rosadalis. I at once procured three bottles, and commenced giving it to her. The effect was magical. In less than a month, to my great astonishment, she was entirely well.

I am, sir,
Yours, with respect and gratitude,
W. W. BURNETT.

ROSADALIS CURES ALL SKIN DISEASES.

WILSON, N. C., Sept. 15, 1867.

DR. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir:—In 1862 my son, now aged five years, was vaccinnated with what proved to be impure matter, which completely destroyed his health. He has been afflicted with an inveterate and extremely troublesome Eruption of the Skin, sometimes breaking out in sores, &c. Rosadalis was prescribed by my family physician—Dr. A. D. Moore. After taking it a few weeks, my son became and remains entirely well. Yours truly,

J. B. DANIEL.

CHRONIC LIVER COMPLAINT CURED.

This is to certify that I was cured of Chronic Liver Complaint by Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis, after having been confined to my bed and house for a long time, and trying various medicines without benefit.

I know of several others in this County, cured through the use of the Rosadalis, and it can be found in nearly every house in my neighborhood, and they all praise it as a great medicine.

40 YEARS.

DEEMS' Southern Hepatic Pills, are made and sold by the discoverer, that old and well-tried remedy for all diseases caused by DISEASED LIVER, which is attended with all the symptoms of Consumptions. In 1825 the Discoverer was reduced to a mere skeleton, and was pronounced by three of the most skillful physicians of one of our largest cities, to be in an advanced stage of Consumption, and beyond cure. He then began to try experiments on himself, and after many efforts discovered (by the help of an Indian) the remedy which wrought in him a perfect cure. He is now in the 78th year of his age, and at this advanced stage of life retains an excellent constitution. In 32 years itinerating in the ministry, he has seen more than a thousand persons, who were given up to die of Consumption as beyond cure, dragging out a miserable existence, not knowing what ailed them, they were cured by these Hepatic Pills, and afterwards enjoyed the most perfect health.

There is in these Pills a peculiar combination with an article which has probably never before been used as a medicine. They are highly strengthening, and mild in their action on the bowels. In the preparation of these very superior and excellent Pills, no cost or trouble is spared to insure the greatest possible degree of perfection, in point of utility, excellence and comfort; the advantage in these Pills, therefore, is that a cure must be radical and complete, without the necessity of incorporating such drugs into our Pills as to break down the system in one part to remove the disease in another, and leave the patient to groan under worse diseases than heretofore. Where these Pills are known, especially in the Southern States, where they have been used so extensively, they need no recommendation, their merits are so well known by their results, which has given them a reputation that has brought them into great demand. They are therefore destined to be, at no distant day, the only remedy recognized and used by the people where billious diseases are so prevalent.

They can be sent to any point in the United States by mail or express.

Price:—25 cents per box, $2 50 per doz. By the gross, $18. The cash must either accompany the order for the Medicine, or it will be sent C. O. D.

[For the North Carolinian.]

BEHIND THE CURTAIN.

Enter X. P. G., Uncle Handy and Col. Font.

X. P. G.—Good morning, gentlemen. Uncle Handy, my venerable friend, I hope you are well.

U. H.—Tolerable, Gov'nor, and hope you are quite salubrious, and well as could be expected, after that rasping Uncle Stephen gin you tother day.

X. P. G.—That was a hard rub, Uncle Handy, and it took all my philosophy to bear it—from a nigger—beg pardon, from a colored person, I should have said. But what did the other Ethiopean say? Wouldn't he agree to the interview I asked, Handy?

U. H.—'Gree to interview! I should rayther think he didn't. He said you couldn't hugger-mugger him as you did your own niggers.—Though you had fooled everybody else, white and black, dat ever trusted you, you couldn't fool dat nigger.

X. P. G.—Well, what did he say to my invitation? Would not he be persuaded to come?

U. H.—Well, Gov'nor, you want to know 'zactly what he did say?

X. P. G.—I would like to know.

U. H.—Why, he only said he had no respect whatever for a hypocritical traitor; that he had told you in his card 'zactly his opinion; that you couldn't change it, and that you might kiss his foot. 'Sides, he said if you had any proposition to make, that you must do it in writing, as a gentleman ought to, and that he might possibly notice it.

X. P. G.—I have no disposition to contend with the old rascal in that way. He is a hard customer.

U. H.—He is dat, Gov'nor. I'm an old man, Gov'nor, but in all my life I never seed sich a smasher. I felt a creepin all over me when I read it.

X. P. G.—I felt something creeping over me too, Uncle Handy.

Font.—The devil you did. Fleas, eh? Where had you been sleeping about that time? "He who lies down with hogs," and so forth. But, old fellow, did it creep loyally? There is a curious history about fleas. Did you ever read the story—

X. P. G.—For Heaven's sake stop, Font! You have made us all ridiculous by your tom-fooleries, and tumble bug-geries. Republicanism, such as we have, has made us acquainted with strange bed-fellows, Font. It is not comfortable to push these entomological enquiries too far. But you spare no one's feelings—have no discretion.

Font.—Verbam sap. I am your slave, (bowing low).

X. P. G.—Uncle Handy! I shared your couch once. Was I degraded?

U. H.—No, sir-ree! You was not! Can't speak furder on dat subject. But I've had to 'pologise myself to de colored breden.

X. P. G.—Uncle Handy, be trustful and true. I shall take great pains to save your reputation from reproach. You must be above suspicion. It would hurt my feelings if our intimate friendship should prove a disgrace to you.

U. H.—I don't 'sackly 'sider it so myself. But, Gov'ner, dis is a very sensorious generation. Some of the cullered brudders thinks I ought to be mighty p'tickler in the company I keeps.

X. P. G.—Stick to me, Uncle Handy! and I give you the word of one who has been a Governor, and shall be again, that I will take care of your reputation. You are a good workman, my venerable friend. And what saith the Scripture? "The workman is worthy of his hire."

U. H.—Yes, dat's Scripter, I know. But will it come to dat? Will you ebber be Gov'ner agin?

X. P. G.—Will I! Pray for me Uncle Handy! And go it strong, as you used to pray in our dark days, for "our Confederacy," the success of "our noble army," under old Bob Lee, and we will see what will come of it. Will I be Governor again, indeed!

U. H.—Well, I 'spose you will. But wont it be a little queer, that after you've been beat twice by de white folks, you should want we niggers to 'lect you?—ha! ha! cullered gentlemen, I mean—but it will slip out, spite o' myself. But you needn't be twittin' me o' prayin' for the Confederacy? It was a leetle over de leff—I 'low. But I'se pented.

X. P. G.—So have I, my christian brother, in sackcloth and ashes, and have been well paid for it. And now let us all pray! Uncle Handy, will you lead in the exercises, and give us a gaul buster at the throne, for the success of the Radical cause? and throw in a little for the pardon of our old sins, you know. You can beat Brother Broddie and all the colored Gospel Conventioners out of their breeches, if you'll only let yourself out, and lift yourself up, as you used to for the old Confederacy.

U. H.—Dis isn't de 'casion, brother Guv'ner. I don't feel de sites now as I used to. I sorter feel mean whenever I try to pray for the success of our crew—I used to pray for gentlemen.

Font.—Uncle Handy is right. We do all feel mean, but we are in for it and can't back out. But don't let us be praying and snivelling over it. Let all things be done decently and in order, as far as we can. You have done enough hypocrisy, Governor, without this.

X. P. G.—Font, you may be right. But you might spare me a little. We are all weak creters, you know, and I beg you to be a little more particular. We all have sore spots. Do not, when you can help it, put your finger on mine. I often look away from yours, my dear Font; and should I see a hole in your coat, I would scorn to run and punch my fingers through it. I would in all kindness recommand you to the Blessed Bureau for a new one. No, my friend, these rusty rebels are goading us enough, in all conscience, with their infernal sharp sticks. We should be very kind and forgiving towards one another.

Font.—That's all very good preaching. But Governor don't you feel a little queer when you walk along Fayetteville street by the side of a Buck negro, discussing high constitutional question, and 'specially when you drop in and hobnob, at his expense, over some of that excrable whiskey?"

X. P. G.—Handy Locket, stand up!—there!—When I take the right hand of this venerable friend, and call him my brother, I feel like pouring out my whole soul. And "I can afford to look down with scorn and contempt" on all the pale faces who do not go and do likewise.

Font.—Holden! I swear I scorn such meanness and duplicity. You don't look down with scown or contempt on any body. There is nobody down to look at. There is no need of this pitiful expectation. You can make nothing by it.

X. P. G.—I make nothing by it! What made me a Governor? What made me Head man of the League? What made me overseer of all the niggers in the State?

U. H.—Ah Guv'ner you forget yourself agin.

X. P. G.—Yes, my dearly beloved brother, I did, but I was so provoked by this celebrated Fisherman and searcher after flees and tumble-bugs, and other vermin, that I am scarcely responsible for what I say. He would make a saint swear by his intolerable impudence.

U. H.—Well, be composed, my honored brudder, your overseer-ship is not confined to niggers, as you call 'em.

X. P. G.—To niggers, I should say not! Look at that, (holding up his thub,) I have the whole convention under that thumb—black and white, and Rodman too, and not a mothers son of them dares say his soul is his own, when I cut my eye at them. Uncle Handy, did you ever observe the basilisk power there is in this eye—eh?

U. H.—It is a beauty, shure.

X. P. G.—But as I was saying, what got me the public printing—worth $5,000 a year, clear money? What got Joseph six dollars per diem for his lucid and most interesting Reports? Aye truly, the skies are bright. There is gold above me, and all around me, in possession and in prospect, and I make nothing by it, forsooth! Aye, stoop to Congress my, boy! That's the secret. Roll on the ball, Font! Push and pull! "Take the gift the Gods provide thee" (Dryden,) and "ask no questions." (St. Peter or Paul, forgot which,) "Pluck honors from the pale-faced moon" (Shakespeare.) Did you ever hear of Shakespeare, Uncle Handy? Old Billy Shakespeare, they call him for short.

U. H.—No, your honor, Excellency! I mean. Does Billy Shakepole live in New York or Ohio? And how did he vote, I wonder, on the nigger question?

Font.—My miscellaneous friend, you need a little enlightening, I perceive. The gentleman spoken of by his Excellency, is not Billy Shakepole, but Shack-speare—a sort of Arab nigger—(ahem, colored gentleman, I should have said,) the lawfully begotten son of Old Shackspeare, a very loil Leaguer, and a wonderful old Rad—though he was not, as I remember, ever charged with stealing hogs.

X. P. G.—Font is all right for once—Uncle Handy! He has said a few smart things, considering his raising. Handy, you should learn of him.

U. H.—Learn what, Massa Guv'ner!

X. P. G.—Learn a lesson on greatness, Handy, as I have. "Some there be who are born to greatness," said this most loyal man.

U. H.—Lo! I would like to see 'um?

X. P. G.—Handy! hold up thy honored head! "Thou art the man," Brother Handy, and "of such is the—the,"—how does it read, Font?

U. H.—No you dont! I know Scripter better'n than that. But go on, Guv'ner; your speech is sweet to dis n—— cullored gentleman.

X. P. G.—"Some there be who achieve greatness."

U. H.—And who are they?

X. P. G.—Look on me!! verb. sap. I am a modest man—ahem!—very!

Font.—Ahem!—very! muchly modest—ahem! very! Come, give us the balance, and be done with it.

X. P. G.—'. Some there be who have greatness thrust on them."

Font.—That's me, I suppose.

X. P. G.—Well, Font, I really—do—not—know. You have certainly stooped low enough to conquer a kingdom. But sometimes you will not stay stooped. You can't always forget that you were born a gentleman. I have no difficulty myself on that score. That silly speech of yours the other day has ruined you, I fear.

Font.—What speech, my most discret and miscellaneous friend?

X. P. G.—Why, that you could not afford to go to the menagerie—convention, I mean—more than twice a week, nor stay more than fifteen minutes, because the oder—pronunciation, I mean—was so intolerable that no christian could remain there longer without cursing.

Font.—Well, their pronunciation is unchristian and utterly abominable, and I'll swear it. Scotch bag-pipes in a parlor—ugh! That detestable nasal twang!—ugh!—ugh! Heaven help us! But good morning, gentlemen. This is my time for penance, and I'm off to the monkey show. Ears and nose are to be punished to-day. [Exeunt Omnes.

ROSADALIS WILL CURE THE WORST CASES OF SCROFULA. READ THE STATEMENT BELOW, AND DESPAIR NOT.

Wilson County, Sept. 10, 1867.

Dr. J. J. Lawrence:

Dear Sir—My youngest daughter, aged five years, has been dreadfully afflicted with Scrofula nearly all her life. I tried a great many Physicians, but without relieving her much; in fact, most of them said there was no hope of cure.—During the last Spring she was worse than ever, her body and limbs being covered with sores and blotches—with face and eyes badly ulcerated and swollen. Whilst in this condition, I was advised by Dr. L. A. Stith to try your Rosadalis. I at once procured three bottles, and commenced giving it to her. The effect was magical. In less than a month, to my great astonishment, she was entirely well.

I am, sir,

Yours, with respect and gratitude,

W. W. BURNETT.

ROSADALIS CURES ALL SKIN DISEASES.

Wilson, N. C., Sept. 15, 1867.

Dr. Lawrence—Dear Sir:—In 1862 my son, now aged five years, was vaccinated with what proved to be impure matter, which completely destroyed his health. He has been afflicted with an inveterate and extremely troublesome Eruption of the Skin, sometimes breaking out in sores, &c. Rosadalis was prescribed by my family physician—Dr. A. D. Moore. After taking it a few weeks, my son became and remains entirely well.

Yours truly,

J. B. DANIEL.

This is to certify that I was cured of Chronic Liver Complaint by Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis, after having been confined to my bed and house for a long time, and trying various medicines without benefit.

I know of several others in this County, cured through the use of the Rosadalis, and it can be found in nearly every house in my neighborhood, and they all praise it as a great medicine.

LATEST NEWS TO THE FARMERS OF North Carolina.

Your attention is called to my large stock of Agricultural Implements, Iron Steel, &c., &c.

Corn and Cotton Planters, Corn Shellers, Hay, Shuck and Corn Stalk Cutters, Fan Mills, Plows, of every kind, Harrows and Cultivators, Spades, Shovels Forks, Brier Hooks, Iron Axles, Springs, Cart & Wagon Boxes, &c.

I call particular attention to Billup's Centreboard Cotton Scraper, and to Billup's Dixie Plow. The first is warranted to be the best Scraper ever yet invented, and the Farmers are requested to test its merits in connection with any other kind. The Dixie Plow is freer from choking than any other yet made; will pass through the ground with less power, and do better work than any other kind. This is no vain boast. 'Tis easy to claim superiority; hence I ask a trial.

If Farmers are not satisfied, the money will be refunded.

PROSPECTUS OF THE WESTERN VINDICATOR.

On or before the 1st of March, prox., the undersigned will commence the publication of a weekly newspaper bearing the above title, in the town of Rutherfordton, N. C.

The Western Vindicator, as its name signifies, will be devoted to the support of Western interests and the dissemination of useful intelligence, selected with especial reference to the wants of the section it will labor to represent.

Politically, it will, for the present, adhere to no party organization; but will give a cheerful support to all measures looking to the speedy restoration of the Union, the preservation of the Constitution intact, the supremacy of the white race, and the perpetuity of Republican liberty in America.

The "Vindicator" will have a larger circulation in Rutherford, Polk and Cleaveland counties than any other newspaper. Advertising rates low.

Terms—$2 per annum.

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY!

INCORPORATED IN MAY, 1819.

ASSETS, on January 1st, 1868, $8,000,000.

ANNUAL INCOME FOR THE YEAR PAST, $5,000,000.

NEW POLICIES ISSUED IN 1867 WAS 16,000.

THIS OLD AND WELL-TRIED INSTITUTION IS COMMENDED TO THE CONFIDENCE OF the American people by the fact that during its entire history all of its contracts and payment of losses has been promptly and honorably paid to the amount of $17,485,894 71, and notwithstanding this large amount paid, the Company has now more than One Million of Dollars above liabilities, and are paying back to her members 50 per cent. dividends. And what has been done in the past can but secure confidence for the future. No Company whatever does more or better for its members than the Ætna. Those contemplating this mode of providing for their loved ones will find it to their interest to call at the Office, over the store of Messrs. Tucker & Co.
